WEATHER REPORT.

PROBABILITIES TO-DAY .- Washington, November 13 .- For the South Atlantic and Eastern Gulf States, falling barometer, southwest winds, and cloudy rainy weather will prevail, with slight changes in temperature, and followed at the western stations by rising barometer, and cold northerly winds.

For the Middle Atlantic States, cooler southwest winds, veering to west, or possibly cooler northwest, and failing barometer, with cloudy and possibly rainy weather.

THE WEATHER YESTERDAY was clear and mild.

THERMOMETER YESTERDAY: 6 A. M., 44 9 A. M., 48; noon, 78; 3 P. M., 74; 6 P. M., 63; midnight, 60.

LOCAL MATTERS.

RUNAWAY .- Early vesterday morning Dr. Hunter's horse took fright and ran away up Franklin street on the pavement. A little girl going up the street alone, hearing the clatter of the horse's feet turned around, and seeing the runaway approaching her very rapidly, was terrified to such an extent that she was totally unable to get out ing the number of inmates received, disof the way. A gentleman, however, seeing the perilous situation of the child, went to the month of October; and the amount reher assistance in time to prevent her being run over. The buggy hitched to the horse rico county for the months of July, Auwas considerably broken.

THE DIFFICULTY AT McCormick's-THE CASES DISPOSED OF .- The cases of James with services rendered by the accident am-Sweeney, John T. Brady, Pat. McManus, Robert Cheatham, S. B. Moore, and John Conners, charged with fighting in the barroom of D. J. McCormick, were called in the Police Court yesterday. The counsel for the defence asked that the case be dismissed, and produced a paper purporting to be an acknowledgment from McCormick that he was willing to withdraw prosecution of the matter. The Justice at once dismissed the case.

Subsequently Mr. Moore, one of the parties who was injured in the fight, not being satisfied with the decision of the Justice, swore out a warrant against James Sweeny, John T. Brady, and Patrick McManus, charging them with assaulting and wounding him. The parties were rearrested, and the trial at once proceeded with. Moore testified that while sitting in the bar-room Friday night talking to a friend he was assaulted by Brady. Afterward the three men rushed at him, and he was badly Mr. Beasley testified that he saw Brady during the scuffle take a stove-plate and raise it up, and was in the act of striking a that he knew nothing of his own knowledge, but swore out a warrant against Sweeney and Sullivan from information received of Dr. Jackson, the physician attending Samuels, said that he found him suffering from three severe wounds of a contused nature one on the nose, one on the brow, and another on the back part of the head—and did not think the patient would be able to leave his room for eight or ten days. Sergeant Wren subsequently informed the Court that after Sweeney was arrested he was carried to Samuels's bouse, and that Samuels said in his presence that Sweeney had nothing to do with the fight.

Justice Meredith decided to continue the case ten days in order to have Samuels present. Sweeney and Sullivan were bailed for their appearance.

IMPORTANT TO MERCHANTS, LIQUOR-DEAL-ERS, AND OTHERS.-It would be well for merchants, liquor-dealers, and other business-men who have not done so to get their licenses at once from the Commissioner of the Revenue. All who have not done so are liable to a fine of $200, which the law requires shall be imposed on them for failing to pay their tax. This fine cannot be remitted by the Governor. Judge Guigon

REASSESSMENT ORDERED .- In the Hustings Court yesterday, upon the motion of Messrs. Isaac Davenport, Jr., and others, Judge Guigon entered an order authorizing the reassessment of the property on Dock street between Fourteenth and Fifteenth streets, and assessing the costs against the This was a test case and a large number of persons are interested. The authority for the reassersment in this city will be found on page 287 of the Acts of Assembly 1875-'6-amendment to the city charter.

PERSONAL.-General T. L. Rosser, formerly of Virginia, now of Minnesota, is at present in Richmond, and his numerous comrades and followers will be glad to know that he is not only in good health and spirits, but is willing to bet all the money he has made since the war on Tilden's election. Mr. O. J. Schoolcraft is busily engaged in beautifying his suburban place "Auburn" with an orchard of all the choicest varieties of fruits. The trees were all planted by yesterday afternoon, and ere long we may expect so many charms added to those already existing at "Auburn" that it may bear the palm of being the most attractive of our suburban residences. It was not Mr. Winstock who received

Mr. Miller's gun from Prague on pawn. He has not been in the business since last May. It was reported yesterday that the gun had been recovered. THE EVENT OF THE SEASON.-Mr. Charles Fechter, the great French-English tragedian, supported by the charming artiste, Miss Lizzie Price, will commence an engagement at the Theatre December 18th, appearing in his great rôles of "Claude Melnotte," "Don Cæsar," "Ruy Blas," and "Hamlet." Charles Dickens spoke of Mr. Fechter as follows when he was about to visit America: "I cannot wish my friend a better audience than he will have in the American people, and I cannot wish them a better actor than they will have in my friend. My appreciation is not the result of personal regard, but personal regard has sprung out of my appreciation."

FIRE-ALARM.-The alarm of fire yesterday at 11 A. M. from Station 31, corner of Fourteenth and Main streets, was caused by the burning of a chimney.

REGISTRAR APPOINTED .- W. R. Talman has been appointed registrar at the Second precinct in Jackson Ward.

To-night they will leave on a special train the Home. via the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad for Alexandria.

THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH HOME FOR AGED ADIES.-The Board of Managers of the Church Home announce that the Home, on Fourth street between Clay and Leigh, will be open to visitors to-day from 11 A. M. to 11 P. M. There will be a musical entertainment in the evening. Each visitor is expected to contribute a pound of some useful article as an admission fee.

This Home was purchased and given to the Church by a generous and kind-hearted gentleman of this city, and during the past summer, at his own cost and expense, the building was greatly enlarged and beautified, and is now one of the most prominent buildings, both in appearance and size, in the city.

The improvements were made under the direction and superintendence of M. J. Dimmock, architect, whose skill has been admirably displayed in the general plan and arrangements of the institution. The Home has a capacity of twenty-five rooms, with a refectory, kitchen, and laundry, &c., in addition, and is now complete and occupied. AND INSPECTION .- Richmond Com- The cost of the original building, with the mandery, No. 2, Knights Templar, had a dress-drill and inspection last night on Broad street in front of Washington Hall.

He thanked them for all their kind ness, and especially for their sympathy and support during his affliction in the earlier part of the year. He stated that a true Methodist preacher could not foretell where he would be sent, and that he felt himself ready to go cheerfully to any work which the proper authorities might designate. He would not, if he could, select his field of labor. Should he be returned to his present charge another year it would be very gratifying to him; but he urged the Church to stand unitedly in support of whoever was sent, and to live up to the spirit and intention of the Methodist system. The Broad-Street Methodists have treated their pastor with great kindness. A. M. at Broad-Street church, in its eigh v-second session. Rev. H. H. Kavanaugh D. D., of Kentucky, will preside. SPECIAL MEETINGS IN BEHALF OF THE VIR GINIA BIBLE SOCIETY.

There will be two special services on Sunday next which will doubtless prove very interesting to our people. At 3:30 P. M. a meeting will be held in St. Paul's church, at which addresses in behalf of the Virginia Bible Society will be made by Rev. A similar meeting will be held at night in St. Mark's church, where addresses will be made by Rev. Dr. Curry, and other friends of the Bible cause. During the past year all religious institutions have suffered severely. The Bible societies of the country have felt the pressure more perhaps than any others, from the fact of being general instead of denominational bodies. It is to be regretted that the venerable ociety of this State should be at all straitened, and the Board is of opinion that if its work can be explained there will be such interest awakened as will ensure it all

PROFESSOR EVERETT.-A large crowd as sembled at the Theatre last evening to witness the performances of Professor Everett. These consisted of feats of legerdemain, if they even deserved this name, somewhat similar to those of the Davenport Brothers-performed of course where the crowd could not see the Professor. The whole affair may safely be pronounced the most unmitigated humbug ever practiced upon so many of the people of Richmond. The Professor, however, gave several hints those present would doubtless consider Drops. themselves well humbugged, and thus saved Rhodes, J. PROFESSOR GUNNELLE. - On the last occasion of this gentleman's visit to Richmond he attracted the attention of all classes of our people by his wonderful spiritual manifestations. Funeral of Captain W. G. Freeman .- The funeral of Captain W. G. Freeman took place yesterday at 11 o'clock A. M. from his late residence, the Brooks mansion, Tenth and Decatur streets. Rev. Mr. Sams, of the Meade Memorial church, officiated. The attendance was very large, embracing many of the prominent railroad officials and citizens of Richmond and Manchester, and the floral tributes were many and beautiful. The remains were interred in the family ground at Hollywood, whither six of his children had preceded him.

Captain Freeman was a native of Old Point, Va. He served an apprenticeship as a machinist at New Castle, Del. Early in life he was made superintendent of machinery and motive-power of the Montgomery and West Point railroad, of Montgomery, Ala., and was afterwards superintendent of the Wanler Iron-Works, in the same city. His sufferings, though great, were alleviated by the attention of the best medical skill in this city and Richmond. Captain Freeman was a devoted husbs an affectionate father, and a faithful friend.

He was a man of generous impulses, and although always commanding a large salary died comparatively poor. His reputation as one of the most skilful and best-educated mechanics in the country was long since firmly established. He was fifty-seven years of age, and leaves a widow and six chiltan Company for $3,000. Yesterday, in respect to his memory, work was suspended Dr. Hoge and Rev.
